

About PHC

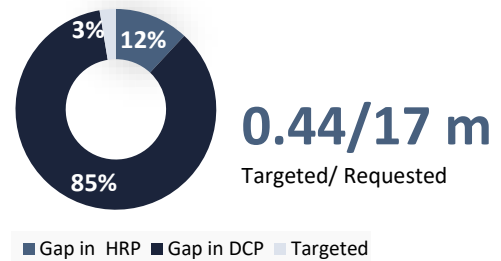

The Palestinian Housing Council (PHC) was established in Jerusalem in 1991 as a non-profit institution dedicated to helping alleviate the problem of housing, and contributing the development of the housing sector, in addition to overcoming the housing problems.

In 2007, PHC was awarded UN-habitat Scroll of Honor Award for exceptional endeavors in helping provide homes, employment prospects and bringing new hope to Palestinian families. Also, PHC won Dubai International Award for Best Practices Transfers, 7th cycle 2008.
